Young Men's Conference

FRIDAY
JUNE 5, 2015

Young Men's Conference

Purpose:

The Young Men's Conference is intended to provide a full array of workshops on drug and alcohol prevention, wellness and leadership in a context that is relevant to young men. The interactive workshops are designed to provide students with valuable knowledge, resources and tools that can be shared with their peers. Workshop presenters will aim to highlight and provide clarity on the varying topics that are key elements in encouraging young men on their journey to becoming productive young men and citizens.
